4. Interest will be compounded annually at date of judgment pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §1961(b) until paid in full.

5. Judgment debtor will make an initial payment on December 30, 2004, payable to the Department of Justice, to be sent to the U.S. Department of Justice, Central Intake Facility, P.O. Box 198558, Atlanta, Georgia 30384, in the amount of $200.00.

6. On the 30th day of each month thereafter, the judgment debtor will tender to the United States a check payable to the Department of Justice in the amount $200.00, and will continue to make such payments by the 30th of each month, until the entire amount of the judgment, together with any interest thereon, is paid in full, with the following special provisions;

(a) Each said payment shall be applied first to the payment of interest accrued to the date of receipt of said payments, and the balance, if any, to the principal;

(b) If plaintiff deems it necessary, the judgment debtor shall submit financial data to the plaintiff as specified by plaintiff on the anniversary date of this judgment for each year this judgment remains unpaid; the judgment debtor shall provide the Attorney for Plaintiff with current, accurate evidence of his or her assets, income and expenditures (including, but not limited to his or her Federal Income Tax returns) within fifteen (15) days of a request for such evidence;

(c) Plaintiff reserves the right to evaluate the updated financial data and consider any extra payments that may have been made then adjust the periodic payment rate upward or downward accordingly, or to demand a lump sum payment if warranted by the judgment debtor's financial circumstances, or by the Attorney for Plaintiff.

6. This judgment may be recorded among the records of the Supreme Court in the County of residence of the defendant, and all other jurisdictions where it is determined by the plaintiff that the defendant owns real or personal property.

7. The defendant shall keep the United States currently informed in writing of any material change in his or her financial situation or ability to pay, and of any change in his or her employment, place of residence or telephone number. Defendant shall provide such information to the Attorney for Plaintiff at his address listed below.
